

To view certifications and their requirements:

Please go to "View certifications" to see a list of all currently available certifications. You can view them by product type or job role.

Then, to view a certification's requirements, scroll over the name of the certification. Click the hyperlink to display detailed information about prerequisites, requirements, recommended courses and more.

Note that this information is available in English only.